The following translation of an article which appeared in the 7 October 1953 issue of the Trieste page of L'Unita, pro-Cominform Communist Party (PCTLT) publication, outlines the alleged aims of the Trieste-Hungary Association and lists officers of the organization:

1. The Trieste-Hungary Association, with headquarters at 11 Via San Nicolo, Trieste (Telephone 29-403) proposes to foster and develop cultural relations with the Hungarian Republic, specifically:

   a. To promote in Hungary a knowledge of local literary, artistic and scientific activities through the dissemination of the most significant works;

   b. To promote in Trieste a knowledge of similar Hungarian pursuits through the medium of lectures, exhibits, theatrical performances, movies, written articles and, in general, through every possible means suitable to the attainment of this objective;

   c. To coordinate and evaluate the work of those individuals in Trieste who plan to carry on research on the cultural, artistic and scientific problems of the Hungarian people; and

   d. To bring to light historical, cultural and political precedents of friendship between the pioneers of Hungarian and Triestine democratic philosophy.
